

Artist's Biography

Candice Simpson grew up and currently resides just north of Minneapolis MN. Her fascination with the affects of paint and color began in childhood when she made her first “glaze” from Elmers glue and model paint to embellish the landscape rocks in her front yard. While growing up and into adulthood she painted with watercolors and acrylics to nurture her passion for art and has studied under several talented artists throughout the last two decades including Michel Nadai, Best Craftsman of France.

In 2000 Candice began her career as a professional texture artist and started her company Textural Hues the following year. Throughout the past 10 years she’s worked with many types of medium on a variety of surfaces, working in residential and commercial settings. In 2008 Candice entered the fine arts world, creating “breeze-refreshing art on canvas”. Her mastery of textures, love of nature and the beauty of simplicity are reflected in her work. Her paintings can be viewed and purchased at www.candicesimpson.com as well as several MN galleries.

Because of her love for the earth and a desire for personal well being, she constantly strives to incorporate healthier, green, sustainable medium and practices into her work.
